Principal Update

Happy New Year Everyone!

What a wonderful concert last night! I cannot think of a better way to have begun the new year than to hear our children bring the Christmas season to a close with our annual Christmas concert. Thank you to all the families who attended, the children who sang, Mr. Lewis, Father Barrow, and our wonderful staff who helped to plan and organize the evening.

The Holiday Card Raffle was a success. We raised $5000 to be applied to the academic program of the school. Students who sold five or more holiday cards were entered into a drawing for a 50-inch television and a Chromebook. Luke Douglas (grade 8) won the television and Vincent Szelag (pre-k) won the Chromebook. Congratulations!

The winners for this week's drawings for the Holiday card raffle are Heather Carlton won $40 gift card to Tovolo's (sold by Emma Cowart); Cristina Arias won two tickets to the Gamm Theater (sold by Amalia Barroso); Pier Suarez won $25 (sold by Noah Montolio); Elijah Barros won a $25 gift card to East Providence Lanes (sold by Tyrell Barros); Ellen O'Malley won $50 to Ricard Jewelers (sold by Ellen Stanek).

I am pleased to report that Mr. Gallucci is on the mend. He had developed an infection of the spine which is now being treated with intravenous antibiotics and physical therapy. He is currently teaching virtually and hopes to be well enough to return soon. I know that he has appreciated the constant and continual prayers from the Saint Teresa Community.

Next Tuesday at 5pm is a meeting of the PTO. All are welcome and encouraged to attend. The meetings take place in the school.

Please note that on the horizon is a movie night and our science fairs.

Have a great week everyone.
